A yearbook is a visual representation; thus, in compiling the Chilhowean it seemed important to portray some of the qualities which are unique to this college. Maryville is a reflection of its location. It would be impossible for one not to realize the beauty of our surroundings, the Great Smoky Mountains, and the effect which their existence has on our college. Another aspect which [illegible] is our heritage. We are not an isolated generation of students, but instead a part of a one hundred [illegible] tradition of people. It is on this tradition that [illegible] to build to keep alive the uniqueness of Maryville. I hope that I have in some way recorded some of the [illegible] of 1973-1974. I want to thank my staff, Miss Savage, Mr. Jones, Mr. Beasley, Mrs. Ussery, Richard Mahler, and Lee Lyle for without their help this yearbook could never have been completed. Special thanks to Dave Gaughan for his help with the wrestling photography and to Lindy Harris for her artistry on the Chilhowean Staff page.

Life — so they say
Is but a game and they let it slip away
Love — like the Autumn sun
Should be dying but it's only just begun
Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see just where we're goin'
And all the secrets in the universe
Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go
And take us up always up

Dreams — so they say
Are for the fools and they let them drift away
Peace — like the silent dove
Should be flyin' but its only just begun
Like Columbus in the olden days
We must gather all our courage
Sail our ships out on the open sea
Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go
And take us up — always up
